House Party During Commencement.

For A. & M. commencement Mrs. G. S. Parker will entertain a large house party composed of the following: Misses Ruby Lee Vance of Fort Worth; Margaret Croker of Dallas; Elizabeth Runge of Galveston; Grace Level of Houston; Dorcas Parker; Messrs. Jack Josey of Beaumont, Jack McKenzie of Galveston, William Lang of Galveston, Percy Clarkson of San Antonio, Lawrence Digan of Galveston, Eugene Herbelin of Galveston, Tom Cherry, Julian Foster, Eyle Runge, Jennings Crocker and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Runge of Galveston.

Complimenting Miss Boyles—

A delightful event of the week having an attractive visitor as honoree was the dance given by Miss Noble Webb last Saturday evening at the Fin Feather Club house in compliment to Miss Gerald Boyles of Houston.

Baskets of lovely roses throughout the rooms, with foliage plants, gave decorative effect, while the veranda was specially beautiful with rustic receptacles filled with spring blossoms.

The music was splendid, the dance numbers being listed within pretty white booklets, and the personnel of fifty young people enjoyed the event to the uttermost. The hospitality was purely informal and was much appreciated by the favored friends.

The charming hostess was assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webb, and sister, Mrs. John Sharp

Williams, Jr., of Yazoo, Miss., who served the guests a salad course with an ice.

Maccabees Entertain—

The Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees of Bryan Review issued invitations to an entertainment to the Hearne Review and the Knights of the Maccabees for Thursday, June 8, at 8 p. m. Through some misunderstanding of the date, the Hearne Review failed to come.

The Bryan Review was greatly disappointed but went right on with the original plans. Covers were laid for twelve at Hotel Bryan, and the merry workers of the Review enjoyed the banquet, which was intended for the visiting ladies.

The evening's program was very interesting. The guard team did their work, which is worth mentioning, and showed a great deal of practice. Rev. Randolph Ray gave the invocation, a vocal solo was rendered by Miss Christian, and a welcome address by the acting commander. An instrumental solo was given by Miss Sarah Williams and a few words from Mayor Harris. A recitation by Mrs. Sprekelmeyer, "The Girl Graduate," which was greatly enjoyed. The entertainment closed with the social hour. Ice tea and sandwiches were served.

The Bryan Review is looking forward to the visit of their district deputy, Mrs. Sallie D. Botzler before the month is over.

Miss Mary Frances Hall as her guest for commencement Miss Lucy Kidd of Sherman.
